The actual competition order will be drawn randomly. Qualifying contestants will have until the start of the 5th bracket to trade positions with another contestant from their bracket for the semi-finals. Contestants qualifying in the 5th and final bracket have 30 minutes upon completion of the bracket to change semi-finals. Trades must be completed on-site with the secretary. The top 5 from each semi-final (based on total money won from their first two go-rounds plus the semi-finals) will advance to the finals (14th performance). If there is a tie, the tie will be broken by the single fastest time in the semi-finals. If still tied, it will be broken by most money won prior to the semi-finals in the brackets. If still tied, the tie will be broken by any go-round winner in the bracket. If still tied, the tie will be broken based on 2020 money won. No previous times will be carried forward.

Contestants not progressing to the Finals from the semi-finals will compete in the Wildcard round to be held on Friday, Feb. 26th. Single fastest time advances to take 11th position in the Finals. If there is a tie in the Wildcard, tie will be broken by most money won prior to the Wildcard. If still tied, tie will be broken by fastest time in semi-finals. If still tied, the tie will be broken based on 2020 WPRA World Standings. No previous scores will be carried forward.

The finals (14th performance) will consist of 11 contestants (5 from each of the semi-finals and 1 from Wildcard). The event champion will be determined by most money won in the AT&T Center during the 2021 San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo. If there is a tie, the tie will be broken by the single fastest time in the finals. If still tied, it will be broken by the most money won prior to the finals (bracket plus semi-finals). If still tied, the tie will be broken by any go-round winner in the bracket. If still tied, the tie will be broken by official 2020 WPRA World Standings.

One alley pass per contestant will be available in the Rodeo Secretary's office. Handler is not permitted past the mouth of the alley and designated signage.

Payoff for San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo will be through the WPRA office.
