8	Office	New Rule - 1.3.1.4.1.1. create a rule stating renewing members must pay all balances on their account prior to being able renew their membership.	Accept	This has been practice but there should be a rule to reference.
42	Office	Rule 9.1.2.2 states: All amounts billed to members are due to the office by the 20th of the following month. Change to say: All amounts billed to members, other than entry fees, are due to the office by the 20th of the following month.
65	Office	10.5.1 states: All entry fees not paid to Rodeo Secretary are to be received in the WPRA office by Tuesday 3:00pm MT following the end of the rodeo. Change to say: All entry fees not paid to Rodeo Secretary are to be received in the WPRA office by Tuesday 3:00pm MT following the end of the rodeo. Entry fees not paid in full by that time will be assessed a late fine and member is at risk of being made ineligible*. *KC may want to discuss that verbiage.
85	Gabbie Grothe	12.9. drag every 5 I am sure you have heard about all the talk lately with bad ground. While I am not a road warrior, I have been to my fair share of rodeos at all levels and mega shows, yet scratch my head as to why the professional association of barrel racing does not drag every 5? What sets the wpra apart from an amateur rodeo if you cannot have top notch competition fields? There are many amateur rodeos that drag every 5. I've heard the excuse of time constraint, which it literally takes 2-3 minutes to drag. I have also heard that stock contractors don't want it apart of their rodeo, well I know for a fact if a committee pushes it, it'll get done. You have 500k horses going up and down the road. Dragging every 10 is so 30 years ago when girls would take their dad's feed lot horse and run it at a rodeo. This year for example, I messaged the Mineral Wells tx committee on the # they'd drag on. They said 10, because the rule book says 10. That rodeo had so many TO's. When you are 11th on knee deep ground, it is impossible to have a chance, let alone ensure safety for your horse. I am sure all the girls would be more than willing for entry fees to raise by $5-10 per run for money to go to a committee for tractor expenses/time in order to drag at 5. If you compare the wpra to the MLB, they don't play on the same field as college or high school plays on. They have turf and dirt that is designed for professional athletes at a professional level. I think it is time for the WPRA to do the same.
